HALL OF JUSTICE

San Francisco, California
Fri., 11/07/75

GENERAL ORDER NO. 122

CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

1. On August 28, 1975, Article 9.6 (Section 660 to Section 660.25) was added to the Police Code regulating charitable solicitations, and is now in effect.
2. This Article requires persons and organizations soliciting contributions for charitable purposes to secure a permit from the Police Department, with certain exceptions.
3. Charitable, tax exempt organizations are not required to secure a permit if the organization files with the Police Department a copy of their exempt status from the Federal Government, pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or tax exemption from the State of California, pursuant to Section 23710d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
4. All persons and organizations to whom a permit has been issued to solicit for charitable purposes must furnish a credential to all persons soliciting on behalf of the permitted person or organization.
5. Because this credential will be issued by the permitted organization, the credential will be in several forms. All credentials, however, must contain the following information:
  - a) The name and address of the charitable organization and the source where additional information may be secured;
  - b) A statement as to whether or not contributions are tax deductible;
  - c) A brief description of the charitable purposes for which the solicitation is made;
  - d) The name, address and signature of the person to whom the credential was issued;
  - e) The expiration date of the credential and,
  - f) The signature of the person issuing the credential.
6. A facsimile copy of the credential with the signatures of persons authorized to issue the credentials shall be on file at the Permit Bureau.

SOME NOTES ON THIS LIST:

1. This list comprises the names of those who have said they want to go to Guyana--sooner or later--without attempting to differentiate between those who will go first and those who will go last.
2. The figures reported in each column are monthly and are net rather than gross.
3. Where known, the type of income is noted after each entry. Eg, "dis"=disability, "sal"=salary, "ret"=retirement, etc.
4. In the commitment column, only those listed as "Comm." are communal.
5. Only their incomes are listed as lost in the nontransferrable column. (Incomes of noncommunal people were not added in because we never had them to begin with.)
6. Only those not noted as "Comm" have commitments reported in the "commitment" column. The amounts used are the amounts reported as we have no way to verify that people pay the commitment they say they are paying.
7. We recognize that this list does not provide all the information you need. We realize it is not broken down into next group coming and next, etc. It is just a list of all those who have said they are going over. No doubt it will be added to as people make themselves known to us.
8. Those clearing the "Needed" column: Leona Collier, Jean Brown, Sandy Bradshaw, Tim Clancey, Maxine Betts.
9. Total amt. of transferrable income--$18,484
Total amt. of nontransferrable COMMUNAL incomes--$26,056
Total amt. of commitments (allegedly) lost--$5,330.

FANTASTIC EXPERIMENT: PROVE SOVIETS REVEAL AIRTIGHT ENVIRONMENT WORKS

OK & B
but check for content from WJ
OK
E.A.

It is possible for people and plants to support each other in an environment sealed off from the rest of the world, scientists from the Soviet Union recently reported. Three ~~men~~ <sup>Soviet scientists</sup> spent four months in an airtight room living entirely off the vegetables, oxygen, and water produced by their plant-friends that shared the same ~~room~~ <sup>Space</sup>.

The Soviets announced that the experiment marks a major breakthrough for manned space explorations. The perfection of such closed biological systems will mean that space voyagers ~~will be able to~~ <sup>can</sup> travel long distances without using up vital food, water, and oxygen supplies. The scientists dieted on fresh carrots, cabbage, and a host of other vegetables grown by hydroponics -- special soil and water nutrients. With ~~constant planting and harvesting~~ constant planting and harvesting, a "véritable green conveyor belt is in action."

~~The benefits of this experiment will affect the entire space travel, and the Soviet Union has contributed not only to the advancement of space exploration with this breakthrough, but also to the continuing struggle against critical food shortages on our ~~dwindling planet~~ increasingly hungry planet.~~

PEOPLES TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL and MEDICAL PROJECT
P. O. Box 893, Georgetown, Guyana (South America)

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Peoples Temple Agricultural and Medical Project is a non-profit human service group, a cooperative, committed to meeting the needs of people for food, clothing and other basic necessities of life.

The members of Peoples Temple include skilled technicians, professionals and field workers who donate their time and services without pay. In addition, children in need are taken in and are given food and education and a loving home. Our medical facility has been instrumental in saving the lives of many in Guyana's interior.

Any monetary assistance you can provide would be greatly appreciated. Thank you so much for whatever you can do.

Sincerely,

Deborah Touchette

One of Plainfield's Newer Residents

SARDIUS ALENA, FROM THE BELGIAN CONGO

SHE HAS GOOD EATING HABITS

Sardius Alema, a native of the Belgian Congo, is one of the newer residents of Plainfield and one which attracts more attention when she comes downtown than the average citizen. The reason—she is a miniature black chimpanzee, which lives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Christopher, where she is treated very much like other members of the family.

Sardius the previous took in the marketplace of the Jewish high priest and thought to be a ruby. Alema, named by her former owner, a cabinet minister, was born a year last September, is fast to learn and easily trained and stays dressed most of the time. Cowboy boots are her newest apparel having been purchased from the Jack and Jill shop recently by Mr. Christopher. She weighs 19 pounds and is 26 inches tall when she stands upright, which she does much of the time. She will be much larger when full grown. She plays in the yard and in the swings and trees but during summer months spends much time on the wrecker with Mr. Christopher, who owns the wrecker company on Avon road. As soon as he stops the truck she alights and helps with the cable and hooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher are the parents of three children, Jerry Lee, Pat and Don and Sardius Alema makes a fine pet for them. The Christophers also have a great Dane dog which is afraid of Sardius and keeps his distance when she is around.

Baby food forms the meals of Sardius who attends the family meals and whose eating habits, according to the Christophers, excellent. Sardius has visited over the country and was attraction for the P.T.A. a few weeks ago.

How Peoples Temple Grew Wealthy

By Marshall Kilduff

Though the Peoples Temple was founded in California less than 12 years ago and the majority of its members are poor blacks, the church has amassed a fortune of property, other assets and cash estimated to be at least $5 million, according to former members.

In interviews with 35 former followers, many of them onetime top aides, Peoples Temple was portrayed as a church where money was an obsession and also a tool for binding members closer to their leader, the Rev. Jim Jones.

So much money was collected from church members that temple leaders opened more than 15 bank accounts and also began taking large sums of cash, ranging up to $50,000, via trusted church couriers to Guyana where the temple has an agricultural mission, according to Chronicle sources.

Nearly every aspect of church life was designed to return a profit to the temple, the former members said.

Property was signed over to the church as gifts from members, large sums of cash were collected during services, and church members were assigned special duties such as street corner soliciting, mail appeals and bake sales.

Followers were expected to contribute a quarter of their salary — a figure that later rose to 40 per cent for some — as well as donate their time and talent, for special chores such as maintenance of the bus fleet, or repair of church buildings.

Church leaders encouraged members injured in traffic accidents to allow temple attorneys to try their court cases, while other church aides peddled photos and drawings of Jones designed to ward off highway mishaps.

Once a member had turned over most of his possessions and money, it was very difficult for him to leave.

"The temple ended up with everything I had," said Deanna Mertle, a member along with her husband and family from 1970 to 1973.

"That's what made it so

A car stolen from near Fullerton was found empty in the Los Angeles river

Big Storm Trickles Off

Los Angeles

The worst tropical storm to strike southern California in 38 years dwindled to showers yesterday, its fury spent after record rains and flooding that killed eight persons and caused millions of dollars in crop damage but did little to alleviate the state's drought.

The storm, which moved up from Baja California as a hurricane Monday stopped short of Northern California. "It just disappeared overnight leaving residual moisture that will stick around for the rest of the day with cloudy skies and light showers," Don Depauw of the National Weather Service said.

Three days of steady rain provided record rainfalls — ranging from two to five inches in Los Angeles and other parched southern California communities.

Rainwater stood six inches deep yesterday in farmlands of the Imperial valley near the Mexico border, where $14 million dollars worth of damage was done to crops, and runoff from the fields kept many county roads impassable.

Some areas of Imperial county remained without electricity and telephone service.

Total damage from the storm was expected to exceed $20 million.

Crop damage also was reported in the two southernmost counties of the fertile San Joaquin valley.

"We don't have any monetary figures for damages yet," said Mike Henry, secretary-treasurer of the Kern County Farm Bureau. "But we know there will be mold and mild problems for the grape growers."

What remained of the county's unharvested tomato crop also was destroyed by an inch of rain.

All major highways were open, except for California 78 between Blythe and Brawley where pavement was washed out and repairs may take months, according to the California Highway Patrol.

State and local water officials said the heavy rains did not significantly help the drought situation because the water came down so rapidly that it had no time to seep into underground water tables. Much of the rain did rush down flood control channels into the ocean.

Southern California receives much of its water supplies from aqueducts in northern California that are hundreds of miles from the storm.

Church Denies 'Exodus'

Peoples Temple acknowledged yesterday that "nearly a thousand" of its members are at the church's farm project in Guyana but refused to describe the departure of such numbers as a "mass exodus."

The response followed a Chronicle story earlier this week that claimed possibly 400 of the church's members were leaving the Bay Area as part of temple plan to shift its affairs to the South American country.

The church press release stated: "For the last two years we have provided our members with the opportunity to reside at our agricultural project.

"Even though there are nearly a thousand there now, and more want to go, we are absolutely not pulling out of San Francisco or California," the statement said.

The church said that San Francisco "will continue to remain our 'home base'" and called news accounts of its inner workings "biased and sensationalistic reporting."

The church has said it has 9000 members in Northern California and 20,000 statewide, although former members of the church believe the temple has about 3500 serious followers.

that temple leaders were regularly dispatched with cash to deposit in Guyana banks, pay temple bills and often to bury the money for safekeeping.

On several occasions these couriers carried as much as $50,000, according to former members.

Dan Phillips, who went with Jones and about a dozen top church leaders to Guyana on the temple's first visit in December of 1973, said a large sum was transferred at that time.

"Each of us had $5000 on us in cash. There was also a bank draft for $600,000 from Barclay's of Canada to deposit in the bank's branch in Georgetown (the capital of Guyana)."

The Edwards couple left San Francisco last spring on short notice, their family told The Chronicle, and the two are believed to be in Guyana with the church.

Thus, their property was sold in their absence. Temple secretary Jean F. Brown had power of attorney and signed sale documents prepared by temple lawyer Gene Chaikin.

But the average temple member is not in any position to offer the church such wealth, former members claim. One example is Jesse Boyd, an elderly black woman who lives in a studio apartment run by the San Francisco Housing Authority at 608 Ellis street.

She pays a quarter of her income of $403 per month as rent and paid another quarter to the church until she left in February of this year.

In her 6½ years as a follower of Jones, she signed checks payable to the church totaling $3937.19. These checks were deposited into four different church bank accounts: Bank of Upper Lake, Bank of America and Wells Fargo, all in Ukiah, and the Bank of Montreal in San Francisco.

She also baked seven or eight cakes every week. "I bought all the fixings myself, and the church would take it over to the Safeway or Albertson's and sell each one for $5.

"I can't tell you how much I may have given in little bits of cash," she said.

Temple spokesmen contend that such contributions go toward a wide array of free church services such as legal counseling, medical care and meals.

Jones himself has stated the Guyana mission has cost his church upwards of $1 million since he first established the settlement in 1973.

The Guyana outpost, to which Jones has retreated since the controversy began about a month ago, apparently has been the destination of much of the church's money.

Five members confirmed

Church spokesmen claim people each, scattered through and for us to leave. We had nowhere to go and nothing to fall back on," Mertle said.

The church has reported publicly that its yearly budget is $800,000. The temple is not required to report its finances to either the Internal Revenue Service or state officials.

But such expenditures did not match the enormous sums that accumulated, according to former members.

"It (the money) became almost a joke with Jim," said one woman who was a top adviser and notary who witnessed scores of church legal documents.

"We used to wonder what to do with it all. But we never spent it on much," she said.

Questions about the temple's finances were raised in earlier press investigations of Jones, a Disciples of Christ minister who moved to Redwood Valley from Indianapolis with a group of about 100 followers in 1985.

Jones reportedly built a large following, especially among inner-city blacks in San Francisco and Los Angeles, with his abilities as a faith-healer who proclaimed a vision of an integrated and socialist society.

Former members said Jones ordered beatings of his followers to maintain discipline, faked the healings and devoted most of his time to collecting money and cultivating politicians.

Some claim up a 20,000-member congregation in the state, but former members said the true figure was closer to 3500.

This lower number of serious followers along with the fact that many of them are elderly and on small incomes have suggested to observers that the church could not have accumulated very much money.

But those members interviewed said the temple used a variety of techniques to gather money from its followers and to raise substantial sums beyond its membership.

Members were asked to contribute a quarter of their income within several months of joining the church. This portion was raised to a third and finally 40 per cent for some, former members have said.

Other members lived in communes set up in the Ukiah, Redwood Valley and San Francisco areas.

Jackie Swinney, a former member who handled commune finances, said the living arrangements were designed so that members turned over paychecks and received living expenses in return.

"We were clearing $8000 to $10,000 per month when we were just in Redwood City," she said.

The church is believed to have at least 12 such communes, many with upwards of a dozen the Fillmore district here.

Swinney also supervised the money-counters who totaled up the receipts during marathon weekend services that Jones held in Redwood Valley; San Francisco and Los Angeles.

"On a good day in Los Angeles during 1973 and 1974, we'd handle $20,000 to $25,000," she said.

"San Francisco was sometimes as good. It was all small bills and change. Now and then we'd have some jewelry too," Swinney added.

"We had a series of banks we used from Ukiah to Lakeport," said one woman who frequently handled the bank deposits.

Sandy Parks, a former member who worked in the church's legal and financial office, said that temple leaders were careful to spread their money among the accounts so as to avoid a huge sum in one or two that bank or government officials would judge as suspicious.

Parks also said she typed up "maybe 50" applications from church members seeking to cash in their life insurance policies.

Deanna Mertle and her husband Elmer ran the church's publications. It was their job, they said, to study religious mailings from other faith healers and recommend a new monthly mailing to solicit contributions.

day, and that is a very conservative figure," she said.

Other publication sidelines included photographs of Jones, intended for such things as warding off burglars, illness and traffic accidents.

Birdie Marable sold nine different kinds of Jones pictures from a bag that she carried during weekend services. "I made $60 to $100 a meeting," she said.

Aside from such routine methods, there were larger sums that accrued to the church through property transfers.

Between 1987 and the present the church or its officials were involved in 32 recorded real estate transactions. Ten of these amounted to gifts of property to the church.

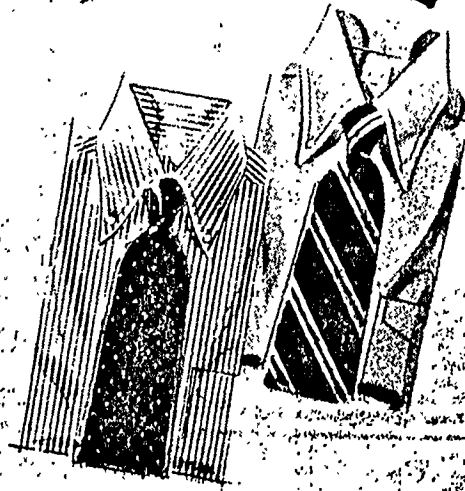

The church has reportedly been pulling out of the Mendocino area and has placed some six pieces of property on sale for $1.25 million.

In San Francisco, the church has sold two pieces of property this year—a three-unit apartment at 1980-84 Page street for $127,000 on June 21 and a pair of lots at 256 Howth street for $42,000 on May 12.

In addition there are sales in which temple officials sold property owned by church members.

For example, a rest home owned by James and Irene Edwards at 3704-S 21st street was sold on July 1 for $90,000.

Locke,
Sacramento county

A Hong Kong developer has reportedly bought the historic Sacramento Delta town, of Locke for $1.5 million.

Developer Ng Tor-Tai said he expects to build a Chinese cultural center, a museum and maybe a floating restaurant on the nearby Sacramento river.

Locke was built in 1912 by Chinese laborers who leased the land from George Locke, a goldminer. The town is said to be the only town in the United States built entirely by Chinese.

The town is on a bend in the Sacramento river about 70 miles north of San Francisco.

The proposed development is expected to cost about $10 million. There are about 100 direct descendants of the town's Chinese founders living in its buildings.

Carolyn,

Note: This is maintained for the purposes of paying taxes, so should stay as is. Marcie gave me some pre-signed checks in case I should need to submit the tax payment. I am still waiting on the returns from the other place. Nothing yet. I triple checked what I did receive -- it is definitely not the account for Marcie and Jim. It is for LJ, SJ, and CL.

Dear Miss Brown:

Enclosed you will find the following returns for Rev. & Mrs. James Jones:

1. 1977 Federal income tax return showing an overpayment of $12,511.45. Because the tax is more than we anticipated, we have had it all applied to the 1978 estimated tax.
2. 1978 Federal estimated tax return showing no tax due.
3. 1977 California income tax return showing an overpayment of $2,871.28 which we have applied to the 1978 estimated tax.
4. 1978 California estimated tax return showing a payment due of $300.00.

Each of the above returns should be signed by you for James W. Jones and again for Marceline M. Jones showing a power of attorney for each.

We are having you pay the $300.00 now so that there will be no further payments due until the filing of the final 1978 returns next year.

We are enclosing an extra copy of each return so that you can send one to Rev. Jones and have one yourself in case of any questions. We have also enclosed our bill for the preparation of the returns.

If you have any questions regarding these returns, please contact us.

Sincerely,

RE: Mr. Matthews, Governor of the Bank of Guyana
Subject: Setting up an external account

Date: March 24, 1977

1. He did not have anything to do with it except to tell us that we will have to see someone from the Guyana National Cooperative Bank and to tell that person (either the Manager or the Deputy Manager) that he had given the approval for such an account.
2. The Minister of Finance had set up the appointment for us to meet with him.
3. Matthews is from Guyana. He is about 45 years old. He has worked for the Bank of Guyana for 11 years, since it was first began. He has been the head person, governor, for only two years. He worked in the Inland Revenue Dept for a short time before that. He has had one year of education in England and has taken some course here.
4. He is not a pretentious person. He is very highstrung and has a slight studder. He does not try to impress us.
5. He said that only overseas dollars can come into the account. Nothing from Guyana may be put in this account. He said that we can pay any expenses we have both here in Guyana with this account and pay any bills overseas. He said that it would make things easier if we kept our dollars all in one form, (e.g. all US$, instead of U.S.$, German Marks, etc.)
6. He said for the Coop Bank to apply to the Bank of Guyana on our behalf for an External account designated in our name, and to say that Bank of Guyana (Mr. Matthews specifically) agreed to this.

Dear First Federal Saver:

The enclosed endorsement is a part of your Variable-Rate savings certificate, and should be put with the certificate as a permanent part of your records. The purpose of this endorsement is to allow us to conform to a new Federal regulation that permits us to pay you the higher certificate dividend rate at the end of each quarter, without having to wait until your certificate reaches maturity. This means more earnings for you.

All who now hold Variable-Rate savings certificates earn dividends at the annual rate of  $5\frac{1}{4}\%$ , compounded continuously. This rate applies as of July 1, 1968, and it is NOT necessary for you to make any change or take any action in order to earn this new rate.

Earnings will now be credited each quarter at the full  $5\frac{1}{4}\%$  annual rate. However, should you redeem your certificate before it matures, Federal regulations prohibit us from paying you earnings at the Variable-Rate savings certificate rate, and we may only pay you earnings at not more than the current passbook rate.

If we have been mailing you a dividend check each quarter, we shall continue to do so. On the other hand, if you have been allowing your earnings to accumulate in a passbook account, we shall, from July 1, 1968, accumulate them right in your Variable-Rate certificate account so that you will receive the benefit of the higher earnings rate on all your funds. At the end of each quarter, we shall mail you a statement of earnings on your savings account.

It is always a pleasure to serve you at First Federal. Please call us should you have any questions about your account.

Sincerely,

Wendell M. Hicks

Monetary Information: Guyana Co-operative Bank; Visited by Sharon A. Tim Carter, Karen Layton, Richard Janero, & Deb. E. We spoke to the General Manager, he said, if Guyana has to devalue the exchange rate would change. At this point it is fixed. He said the Guyana dollar is not to stable. Sharon asked what securities were they're in Guyana? He said we could buy govt. securities. (ref. to bonds) I asked him about a fixed account, frozen at the exchange rate when the account was open. He said they had fixed accounts at 5.5 percent, but they were still effective by any devaluation. Sharon asked about purchasing an object outside of Guyana, registered outside of Guyana, when the seller is Guyanese." He said, "In a case where a Guyanese would prefer to have funds abroad, we can do that, but Guyanese are not allowed to have accounts abroad unless it is declared, but the problem lies with him, it's not your responsibility." He said, "bonds or a fixed income were securities in terms of Guyana money. Banks used to hold funds at the exchange rate in foreign currency in speculation of change, but that's not done anymore," he said. "Hardly any room for speculation, only 50.00 Guyana dollars are allowed to be sent out per year as a gift, he said. To walk out of the country (airport), you can carry only 15.00 Guyana dollars w/out special permission from the bank. He said we should see Mr. Pachmore or Mr. Fraser in the exchange control dept. at the Bank of Guyana. He didn't think the IIP would alter situations such, and didn't think it would interfere with the exchange control rate, the funds would be kept in Guyana. Guyana has certain conditions they have to satisfy, (ref. to the IIP) redeployment, all of that was part of the conditions being laid down. They felt Guyana wasn't making practical use of the available skills. He said, "when a country devalues, they must be certain there will be an increase in production. Production is falling in sugar, bauxite, rice, we wouldn't benefit by a devaluation. One U.S. dollar gives 2.50 Guy dollar, one pound sterling you get 4.50 Guy. Should it devalue it would be 6. something per pound sterling and that would mean more dollars in circulation. But Guyana would prosper if there was a production increase. As it looks Guyana will not come out. He didn't see production increase. Jim pointed out that Jamaica was told to devalue, the IIP demanded it. He agreed that was true, said Jamaica's situation may be different than ours. He said, "They may be exporting more, showing tendencies for increase in production. Foreign investments is one of the conditions the IIP would require. He said he saw no outward indication the government would give up on their stand previously made. He would like to believe each country is treated separately. Bank of Guyana; visited by Richard Tazero, Karen Taylor, Deborah H. Theron Mon... Richard asked about setting up an external account (he didn't realize we had one already) Mr. Fraser said, "Why don't you hold it in U.S. dollars? This is my advise. There's no restriction in speculation of devaluation in Guyana. Theron asked what the regulations were on purchasing outside the country (ref. to the bank), although she didn't mention the bank. He asked us, "like a gift for an example? It has to be an investment and/or it has to be approved. A sale has to be done locally. If it's investment, say like the IIP... If buying outside the country, you have to get an import license to bring things in, probably pay duty from external acct. If it's a situation of funds in another country, the purchase is made and brought to Guyana. You still need an import license. If your buying from Guyana outside, it's ticklish. If the object is owned by a Guyanese and funds are made by the bank, the funds should be brought in. It's the law. It's a domestic purchase, he must be paid in Guyana currency. It's illegal for a Guyanese to hold an account outside the country. There may be one or two situations but it's unusual. He would have to check it out if the person said he had permission. He said investment of funds is a security measure. Treasury bills - a one year thing at 6%, it's almost the safest thing. Theron asked where we should do this at. He said anyone of those commercial banks. You won't have to worry about not getting paid on that when it matures. If it's in U.S. dollars, you should get permission in order to receive it without any trouble when it matures, you won't have any trouble getting it in U.S. dollars, apply to Guyana Bank.

Bank. Mortgages, there's investment in house buildings..4 to 5%. they've been doing that for a long time, it's expanding there alright, check it out. They make Agricultural Loans. They can lend to farmers because no one can come back the next year and ask for it. Sharon asked if he thought there would be a devaluation in Guyana. He said he wouldn't know if devaluation would happen, it would be a secret. There would be some stipulation. It's devaluation is something always considered. That is something I can't answer.

Dear Gene:

Everybody here is fine. The savings and loan transaction is going very slowly, the result of governmental red tape. I've been working very hard trying to get it all together, but am not sure how much progress is being made.

I have never talked to Lieutenant Governor Dymally nor have I had any dealings with him. I am not at all surprised that someone would use my name, considering all of the present circumstances.

With respect to the use of herbicides, my recommendation would be to use those that are the least destructive and have a temporary active life.

Please write and let me know whether the guest facilities you described in your letter to Mom are available yet, as I will take the first opportunity to see you. I can arrange to be there after September. My love to Phyllis and the kids.

Love,

- Ray

P.O. Box 293,
Georgetown.

Dear Mr. Chaikin,

Re: Collectability in Guyana of debts allegedly incurred in the U.S.A.

I have today received your letter dated 26th September, 1978 on the above subject.

In reply, I wish to bring to your attention Section 70 of the Guyana High Court Act Chapter 3:02 which reads as follows:-

"Subject to any special disability to sue or to be sued any person, whether a foreigner or not, and whether domiciled in Guyana or not, may take proceedings or be proceeded against by action or other proceeding in the Court in its civil jurisdiction, and the Court shall have full jurisdiction, power, and authority to try, hear and determine the action or other proceeding and to proceed to a final judgment or order and execution therein."

The Jurisdiction of the Guyana Courts is no different from that of the English Courts, hence, I have found guidance and clarification of the above section by perusing Halsbury's Laws of England Third Edition Vol 7, pages 59 and 64, photocopies of which are enclosed.

Please let me know if you need any further assistance in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

MEC:rcd

Part 5. Contracts

Sec. 1. JURISDICTION WITH REGARD TO CONTRACTS

129. Jurisdiction of English courts. The English courts have (with very few exceptions) jurisdiction to entertain an action relating to a contract, wherever made, in all cases where the parties are effectively before the court, either personally or substituted service of the writ has been effected on the defendant in England or when service has been given to serve the writ or notice of the writ out of the jurisdiction (i) or when the parties have voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction (ii). Where an English company has acquired, under a contract to be performed in England, rights in English property (such as rights to English patent licences) from another English company, the contract remains enforceable in England although a foreign court has ordered the latter company to assign the property to another person, within its jurisdiction (a).

The courts, however, have as a general rule no jurisdiction to entertain an action on a contract involving the determination of the title to real property (b), except where the question of title is only an incidental question in the action, as on a covenant to pay rent (c); nor do they exercise jurisdiction in actions to recover taxes or rates imposed by a foreign law (d), or against sovereigns and certain other privileged persons and bodies not amenable to the jurisdiction of the English courts, without their consent (e).

131. Foreign company. The jurisdiction of the English courts over a foreign company does not essentially differ from that over an individual (f). A foreign company within the jurisdiction may sue or be sued on a contract made in England provided it is not ultra vires the company and is not contrary to the law of England (g). The mere fact, however, that a contract with a foreign company has been entered into in England is not sufficient to give an English court jurisdiction to make the company appear (h).

(i) For the case in which service out of the jurisdiction may be permitted see R. S. C. Ord. 11, r. 1. A person so served is entitled to appear conditionally or under a writ and is subject to the jurisdiction, see Mayor v. Clarette (1890), 7 T. L. R. 40, D. C.; see also 288 THE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

(ii) See Tharley, Solbur and Copper Co. v. Societe des Metaux (1889), 58 L. J. Q. B. 435; The Compania [1899] R. 285, C. A.; Liverich Corp. v. Cronquist, [1910] 2 L. R. 416, C. A.

R. 88 (subsequent judgment for the plaintiff's performance).

(b) See p. 30, ante; and title Actions, Vol. 1, p. 35.

(f) There is, however, special legislation regarding foreign companies which are themselves within the description "over-sea company" in the Companies Act, 1948 (11 & 12 Geo. 6 c. 78), and a foreign company having assets in England can be wound up there as an unregistered company, although it has already been dissolved in a foreign country; see THE COMPANIES, Vol. 6, pp. 834 et seq., 845 et seq.

English income tax cannot be deducted by the debtor if the loan is governed by some other law (m), nor can foreign income tax be deducted if the loan is governed by English law (n). Interest as such is not recoverable in England in an action on a foreign judgment although it may be recoverable in the country where the judgment was pronounced, but it may be recovered in the form of damages in England (p).

154. Exchange. No money action can be brought in England except such as is expressed as claiming a sum in English currency, and all judgments must be expressed in such currency. A great difference exists between the times at which the exchange from foreign currency into English should be ascertained, and those generally observed in other countries. Thus, in the case of a breach of contract the English law treats the damages as converted into sterling at the time of the breach, while foreign countries either adopt the rate of exchange current at the date of the judgment or the rate current at the time of payment (q).

In general, a payment by a person resident in the United Kingdom to a person resident outside the scheduled territories for exchange control purposes (r) requires the permission of the Treasury (s). When money is payable under a judgment to a person so resident the money must, unless Treasury permission is given, be paid into court (t).

Part 6. Torts

✓ 155. Jurisdiction in respect of foreign torts. Over torts committed in England the English courts have jurisdiction, whatever the nationality of the parties may be (u); but different considerations arise when an action is brought in England in respect of a personal tort committed abroad. In such a case the English courts do not assume jurisdiction unless the wrong complained of would have been justiciable in England if it was perpetrated within the territorial jurisdiction, and also is not justifiable by the law of the place where it occurred (v). Even in such a case an English statute may relieve the defendant from liability if it appears on the true construction of the statute that it was intended to have an extra-territorial operation (b). It is not necessary that it should be also actionable (in the ordinary sense) in the foreign country: it is sufficient if it is wrongful and unjustifiable, although giving rise to no civil proceedings for damages (c). Thus, the foreign law may regard the act as of a criminal nature only, or it may require the institution of penal proceedings as a condition precedent to the recovery of damages (d). The jurisdiction of the English court will not be ousted, if it appears that proceedings are in fact pending in a foreign court in respect of the matter complained of, whether those proceedings are of a civil or a criminal nature (e). The jurisdiction of the English court can only be ousted by proving an exclusive jurisdiction over the matter in the courts of the foreign country (f). The fact that the jurisdiction may be exercised more conveniently by one court than by another does not affect the question (g). It is immaterial that one or both of the litigants are of foreign nationality (h). If both litigants are of the same foreign nationality a defence, valid by the national law of the litigants, will not avail the defendant in an action in the English courts in respect of a tort committed in England (i).

The act complained of may have been wrongful by the law of the foreign country at the time when it was committed: but if the legislature of that country, by retrospective enactment, has subsequently declared it lawful, or indemnified the person who committed it against all consequences, no

DEAR SHAREOWNER:

The enclosed stock certificate represents the $12.50 par value shares to which you are entitled as a result of the previously announced two-for-one stock split approved by the shareowners on November 26, 1974. It represents one additional share for each $25 par value share that was registered in your name on November 27. // On that date, the $25 par value shares were automatically converted into $12.50 par value shares. // As a result, you now own twice as many shares of common stock as you owned November 27, one-half of which are represented by the new certificate and the other half by the old certificate. There is no need to exchange the old certificate for a new certificate.

When calling

// Counsel has advised that, in their opinion, the receipt of additional shares as a result of the split does not result in any gain or loss for Federal Income Tax purposes. (No gain or loss for tax purpose)

In the event you sell any of the new shares you receive in the split, or any of the old shares held by you with respect to which the split was made, you should calculate your gain or loss using an adjusted basis which takes the split into account.

The Chase Manhattan Bank advises that those shareowners participating in the Automatic Dividend Reinvestment Plan will have credited to their respective accounts with the bank the split shares distributed by the company on shares accumulated under the Plan and held by the bank for the participant.

TWO-FOR-ONE STOCK SPLIT

TO OUR STOCKHOLDERS:

It is a pleasure to enclose the new certificate(s) covering additional shares of $1 par value common stock of your Company to which you are entitled as a result of the two-for-one split of your Company's common stock approved by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting held on January 19, 1960.

This split became effective at the close of business on January 26, 1960, and holdings of stock as recorded at that time on the books of our Transfer Agent were used in determining the number of shares each stockholder would receive as a result of the split. All stock certificates outstanding before the split continue to represent the same number of shares of the same par value of $1 each. Accordingly, the enclosed new certificate(s) dated January 27, 1960, together with the certificate(s) already held by you represent your holdings after giving effect to the stock split. Your old certificate(s) should be retained. No surrender and exchange of these certificate(s) will be required.

Mailing of the enclosed certificate(s) has been handled by The Chase Manhattan Bank, our Transfer Agent and Dividend Disbursing Agent, and any inquiries concerning such mailing should be directed to The Chase Manhattan Bank, 40 Wall Street, New York 15, New York.

Your Company is advised by counsel that under existing tax laws the two-for-one stock split will not result in any gain or loss to the stockholders for federal income tax purposes. Your cost or other basis for each share of old stock held on January 26, 1960 should be allocated equally between the share of old stock and the corresponding share of new stock. The holding period for each new share of stock dates from the beginning of the holding period for each corresponding old share of stock.

Since the above information may be helpful for tax or other purposes at some future time, you may wish to keep this letter with your stock certificate(s).

Cordially yours,

President

Re: Tax Information

I am not sure exactly what information you want. Is it everyone who receives SSA and a retirement or pension check? Does it make a difference what their age is (i.e. over 65)? If so, you will have to give me a list of those people ~~if~~ over 65, as I do not have that information. Do you want everyone who is over 65 and receives SSA alone? SSA and retirement or pension? ~~XXX~~ Also, do you need to know the total amount of income for these people for 1977? If so, I cannot help--we will have to ask the states for that information as I only have income records for people beginning at the time they arrived here. Also, I would not have an accurate total because several people have back checks due them. Please let me know and I will get the list to you as soon as possible.

P.S. one last thing--do you need to know the name of the company the retirement or pension checks are issued from?

Dear Mr. Sawyer,

It is my wish at this time that my name, James W. Jones be removed as signatory to the accounts I have established in your banking institution. Marceline Mae Jones shall remain as signatory to the above accounts.

Further I wish to create a power of attorney over these accounts in the name of Carolyn M. Layton. You already have her signature card on file at your bank. I wish this power of attorney to be the kind which survives after death. If there are any papers I need to sign in order to make this change please give them to Mrs. Layton to bring to me to sign. At this time I am not near any Consulate and therefore would not be able to have them affix their stamp to such a document. However, you have my signature specimen on file and could compare it with the papers which I can sign and have mailed back to you.

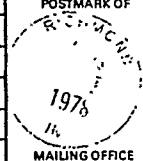

Thank you very much for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

James W. Jones
