

Dear Claire + Kim,

I'm listening to "Fiddler on the Roof" again in the second school tent tonight. Made me remember how I listened to it so often at the ranch.

It's much nicer to be here and hear it. It's warm outside and everything is fresh because it just rained.

We found a baby opossum yesterday, and it's so small that I can't feed it from an eyedropper sufficiently. So... we just happen to have a cat with a 4 day old litter. The opossum is a bit smaller than the kittens, but the mother has accepted it so far. The opossum will be about the size of a full grown cat when he gets older.

If you can, please try to get some baby-doll bottles and send them to us. We always have some kind of baby animal that requires a small nipple.

We got the nail clippers, Thank you.

Mami has lost a lot of weight.
She's about as small as I was while I was at the ranch. She looks pretty good too.

I saw a picture of you Kim, together with Kiara on your lap. We've got some pretty nice looking dogs
- to here. Sort-of collie looking. We've been raising cats now along with our other animals for mousing.

I'll write again in a few days.
Expecting to hear from you again.

Hingakela - Hi Kris Johnson!!!

Hain's things? Got your picture Bofakela a while back. It was nice to hear from you. Hope to see you comrades soon...

Until We Meet,
at just early no Chris Talley
