

Funeral Services
FOR
Mary Pearl Willis

TO BE HELD AT THE

St. Paul Baptist Church

Reverend C. H. Nash, Officiating

Saturday, January 6, 1979

2:00 P. M.

O B I T U A R Y

** **

Mary Pearl Willis was born to Shephard and Ellen Willis on December 21, 1940 in Rayville, Louisiana.

She departed this life on November 18, 1978 in Jonestown, Guyana, South America.

She is survived by: her parents, Shephard Willis and Ellen Ward; step-mother, Ira Lee Willis; her daughter, Brenda Denise Willis; granddaughter, Tahira Kirsten Willis, both of Oakland, California; grandparents, Ollie Wilson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Lusetta E. Polk of Monroe, Louisiana; two sisters, Miss Sadie Lee Willis of Oakland, California, Mrs. Betty Jean Howard of Los Angeles, California; step-sister, Mary Lee Standifer of Monroe, Louisiana; three brothers, Clarence, Johnny Ray and Victor Dale Willis of Monroe, Louisiana; three nieces, Bridgette Renee', Cynthia Elaine Willis, and Lela Vanessa Howard of Los Angeles, California; two nephews, James Edward and Jason Andrac' Willis of Oakland, California; eleven aunts; eleven uncles; and numerous cousins and friends.

Before thee man is but a lump of clay, thy giveth life and taketh away, and turneth labor into eternal rest, and after all dear Lord, thy knoweth best.

A Son is born, a Son is given that we may have eternal life.

P R O G R A M

**** ** * * ** * * ** * ***

ProcessionalSoft Music

SongChoir

Scripture & PrayerPulpit

SongChoir

EulogyCeasar Clark

RemarksOpen

Acknowledgements, Condolences & Obituary - Dorothy Mae Warner

SoloMaggie Ruth Grayson

Funeral Oration Reverend C. H. Nash

(There will be a closed casket service)

Recessional

Mrs. Margaret Hatcher, Mistress of Ceremonies

Song ServiceSt. Paul & St. Joe

Usher ServiceSt. Paul, St. Joe & City Wide

ACTIVE PALLBEARERS

Tom Jack Gray

Alvin Gray

Henry Lewis Woods

Samuel Woods

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Clarence Willis

Johnny Ray Willis

Victor Dale Willis

Albert James Howard

Alvin Standifer

— ACKNOWLEDGEMENT —

The Family of Mary Pearl Willis wishes to express its gratitude for all the kindness rendered and courtesies extended during their bereavement. May God bless and keep you all.