TIMOTHY STOEN'S CLANDESTINE SPY MISSION TO EAST BERLIN IN THE EARLY SIXTIES:

Reds Kept Local Student 15 Hours Without Food for Taking Photos

Fifteen hours in Communist hands. That was the experience of Tim Stoen, Littleton graduate, who had the audacity to take a picture of a sign being erected in East Berlin.

Stoen told about his ordeal at the Rotary Club last week after returning from a year abroad on a Rotary Fellowship.

"I thought I should go to East Berlin and see what it is like behind the Iron Curtain," Stoen said. "The first thing that I noticed was the blank expression on the faces of everyone. You could tell they were just waiting for the day they might have some freedom. This will come slowly. Poets are already getting some freedom, and so are theatrical people and musicians. It was noteworthy that a journalist was able to print in Moscow the interview with President Kennedy."

Began Taking Pictures

Stoen said he took a number of pictures in East Berlin without difficulty. Then he took one of a sign being erected near the newly-built wall.

Three German officers rushed over to Tim and an East Berlin student who was showing him around. They took the pair at 12:30 p.m. to a building and held them there until 8 p.m.

"I was fearful for my new-found friend because he had taken too many liberties for the Communists, and I didn't want to get him into trouble," Stoen said. "Finally, at 8 p.m., three men escorted me out of the building and put me in a Czech car. We drove and we drove in silence. I didn't know Berlin was so large. We came to a building with bars on it and I was taken in and questioned. They kept trying to trip me up, coming around to the same questions in different words to see if I would contradict myself. I had to take everything out of my pockets. They found a roll of exposed film and kept it. The guards were curious about my nail clip and wanted to see how it worked. They had never seen an American coin purse that opens a crack when you bend it, and they were like children with it. I was getting both weak and apprehensive, and I was trying to test the power of positive thinking. I had had no food for 15 hours and I was glad when they brought me some unpalatable ham sandwiches. Soon afterwards, they took me to the border and let me go."

SOCIALIST NATION HA REV. JONES VI MEETS WITH H

Rev. Jim Jones travelled to Cuba last month where he toured the country and met with Black Panther leader Huey Newton. Talking with hundreds of residents to get their impressions of what life is like in this socialist nation, Rev. Jones found an optimistic people, highly enthusiastic about the way things are being run in Castro's Cuba.

Although Cubans do not have all the luxuries that some in America can afford, the standard of living is fantastic - fine restaurants, with prices considerably lower than those at comparable American restaurants, high quality clothing, movies, a lovely, free amusement park for children, and a secondary education program that ranks with the best our country has to offer.

Rev. Jones noted, "I was passing one theatre and noticed that 'The Godfather' was playing. Actually, many of the films are American, but the cinema of every nation is represented. Movies cost a dollar at the most, usually the ones with the most popular
