DETAILS: At 10:50 a.m., 11/28/78, San Juan Office advised that Vernon Gosney, a critically wounded member of the Peoples Temple, was being debriefed at the Roosevelt Roads Naval Hospital in Puerto Rico. The debriefing of Gosney can only be done a few minutes a time due to his physical condition. Gosney stated that a prime assassination target for the Peoples Temple would be Senator John Stennis of Mississippi. Gosney identified the following survivors in Guyana as members of the "angels" which is a pseudonym for their hit squad: (u)

AC

Steve Jones, son of Reverend Jim Jones; Michael Proke; Mike Carter; Tim Carter; Claire Jinnaro; Debbie Touchette; Cleve Swinney. (u)

MS

Current information indicates that Proke and the two other Carters are in custody of Guyanese authorities and are being held for investigation. The remaining individuals are awaiting repatriation to the United States. San Juan is sending a comprehensive teletype covering the debriefing of Gosney. (u)

Ingram to Mr. Moore memorandum
RE: RYMUR

Following San Juan's call, notification of the alleged threat to Senator Stennis was made by Supervisor [redacted] to SA [redacted] U. S. Secret Service Headquarters, Washington. Notification was also made by [redacted] Congressional Liaison to [redacted] Administrative Aide to Senator Stennis. The information contained in this memorandum was furnished to Washington Field Office Supervisor [redacted] who was instructed to advise Washington Metropolitan Police and United States Capitol Police. In addition, SAC John Kelly, Jackson Division, was advised and instructed to advise local authorities in Senator Stennis' hometown, DeKalb, Mississippi. According to Senator Stennis' Office, the Senator is currently in DeKalb, Mississippi. This matter is being followed closely and a more detailed dissemination will be made following receipt of the San Juan teletype (u)
