On December 4, 1978, [redacted] was interviewed at the La Guardia Sheraton Hotel, Queens, New York (NY), and also at the Brooklyn-Queens Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), also at Queens, NY. She still expressed a concern for her well-being if information related by her to the FBI became known. She then provided the following information: [redacted]

During either 1975 or 1976, [redacted] in the Northern California area (possibly Roseville, California), there was a train carrying either nerve gas or a nuclear liquid, which derailed. Reverend JONES boasted to the members that he had been responsible for the derailment. [redacted]

[redacted] Reverend JONES always spoke in parables to the members. He would state that he was reincarnated from God, from the Buddha, and from Lenin. Reverend JONES would send pieces of his "Robe" through the mails to people who requested it. [redacted]

Concerning the "box", which supposedly was used to discipline children, [redacted] someone who had been to Jonestown, told her that the children were placed in a dark box, and/or a well in the ground for discipline. The children were kept there until they confessed they had done something wrong and ask for forgiveness. [redacted]

[redacted] the last contact she had with her mother was during the early part of October, 1978. Her mother had traveled from Jonestown to the San Francisco Peoples Temple (PT). [redacted] telephonically contacted her mother approximately three or four times while her mother was in San Francisco, but never personally met with her, because her mother wanted to meet her at the PT and [redacted] refused to go there. The reason her mother was in San Francisco was because of a [redacted]
