DETAILS: (u)

On 3/30/79, Supervisor Dan Buckley, San Francisco Division, personally furnished SA  a box containing charred paper and advised this evidence had been furnished to the San Francisco Division by Mr.  Criminalist, San Mateo County Sheriff's Office, Redwood City, California. He stated it is believed these items were a part of documents maintained by the "People's Temple".

Buckley stated the San Francisco Division was requesting an attempt be made to read the charred documents in an effort to determine their possible evidentiary value. He advised upon the completion of the document examination, the evidence should be returned to the San Francisco Division along with the report. (u)

EX-112 REC-130 89-4256-2097

The above evidence was personally returned to the FBI Laboratory in Washington, D. C., by SA  for appropriate examination. (u)

11 APR 12 1979

Attached is a copy of an FD-302 reflecting interview of Mr.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended the evidence be examined in accordance with the request of Supervisor Dan Buckley, San Francisco Division, and that it be returned to the San Francisco Division upon completion of the examination. (u)

[redacted] Criminalist, San Mateo County Sheriff's Office Crime Lab, made available a cardboard box which measures 14" X 14" X 7" and contains miscellaneous charred papers. This box was initialed by [redacted] and Agent SULLIVAN and has writing on it identifying it as a box that contained highway fuses.

[redacted] made available Sheriff's Deputy reports which indicated that the box had been turned over to Ano Nuevo State Beach Park Ranger [redacted] on November 26, 1978 by a citizen named [redacted]

[redacted] California, telephone [redacted] had explained to [redacted] that he had found the box containing charred miscellaneous papers in a bonfire at the north end of Bean Hollow Beach in a small cove. [redacted] advised that some of the ashes had words legible still on them indicating that the literature was from the People's Temple.

[redacted] STON kept a chart of [redacted] [redacted] stated that on November 27, 1978 Sheriff's Deputies picked up the box containing the documents which appeared to contain Power of Attorney forms and Membership forms for the People's Temple. Two names were legible according to the Sheriff's Deputies on the Power of Attorney forms, that of CAROLYN M. LAYTON and EVA H. PUGH. The Sheriff's report indicates that there are other legible names and telephone numbers on various pieces of papers contained in the box. The Sheriff's report indicates that the site of the fire was located and it appeared to have been a 5' X 6' area which [redacted] believes should be researched for possible further evidence.
