You, dear friend, as a shepherd of the young, are invited to light a candle and carry it in memory of the 276 children of Jonestown whose precious lives were extinguished on November 18, 1978 in Guyana: An all-night, candlelight vigil will encircle the White House to protest the year-long national silence on their murders and the barbaric bulldozed common burial of two hundred and ten unidentified flowers from the landscape of America. As our lights give way to the dawn, a Sunrise Memorial Service will echo from the Washington Mall in an Act of Rememberance and determination that it shall not happen again. (M)
