I feel bad since I have not been able to thank you in the Rally for what you did for me this last healing. But I am afraid to say anything as the meetings are for other things.

Glad, I did not do anything in the States that I should not have done. I did not have money to spend foolishly & I did not want any one.

Thanks for the beautiful dinner today, it was lovely & I enjoyed it.

Please excuse writing as I am a little tired & nervous.

They asked me last night about shoes, maybe if Lane Bryant does not have in store, maybe can get out of cat alone, size 7 EEE. There is a store on Market down town that carries large size & wide.

Maybe I can find a pair of men's shoes, as I have not got my checks yet.

+ I hate for you ^{to} spend so much money on me.

I have a "Back to Eden", herb book in the boxes to come. Comrade Gubits said he had seen ^{it} in boxes, so I have promised it to herb committee: 12-1978 Joyce Parks told me this morn that she had ordered shoes for me.

Thanks

Dear Dad,

I just wanted to write a brief note and say something. I'm not even sure of what I want to say at this point, but I just know I need to write and communicate with you. Everytime I write I feel I must tell you I am an asshole, I know you already know this, but theres something to being able to communicate with you that makes me feel I can at least flush out the old and start again.

Thank you for the time we've spent here in Guyana, certinly I'm not idealistic to think we have alot of time to live, and I'm not looking at this as if I'm in a paradise, but the fact that there have been four years, where the children, old people, have been able to live without the tremendous pressures of racism immediately upon us, without the exchange of monies.. the fact that we've had a taste of socialism that we would have never seen in the U.S. no matter how hard we tried, has made every moment of being here worthwhile, even if we don't see another tomorrow like I always am saying, I never can talk and express my feelings, and writting, well, I'm not so good at that either...I dont know, I just thank you for being a dad, a strong figure in my life. I'll send a self-analysis next time, I'm rushing to get this done so I can get it on the plane..I mis you.. and I want to say I love you, if thats o.k....don't know to much about love, but thank you

one of your daughters, Deborah Touchette

Thank you for proving to me that Communism can work - even if it only survived a year here. You have saved my life from being counter-productive. I have never seen such character and commitment and sensitivity as you have exhibited. I know your 47 years have been utter hell as sole decision maker and pathfinder. The horror of responsibility that you have undertaken. Your genius keeps me in awe. You struggle for equality despite the unperfektability of mankind. While others have pushed on motivated by illusions

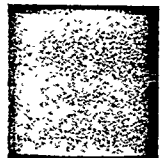

NIC 196

you continue accepting failure. I honor you more than mothers who shot their children in the post ^{to save them from torture} because you have taken on collective responsibility - Your commitment leaves me speechless - You love where we all need. You give where we all take.
I respect you and trust you completely. You are a man out of place and time. No one will ever understand you but you stood for goodness and that is all that counts.
Death is peace and life is ~~so~~ sorrow. So should anything happen in route don't worry. I respect you above all words possible -
