Dear Son,

How are you doing? What is happening over there I cannot hear from you. I haven't heard from you since the middle of March. This is my fifth letter to you. Write me son, so I will know what is going on. You have been gone long enough to be back home by now.

I went down to the church to talk to your two assistant pastors Rev Brown & Rev Goerter. They promised me they would get you to write. I have heard nothing. Take a few minutes son & let me know what is going on. I hope everything is fine. I'll close now, waiting to hear from you. If I don't hear from you soon, I am going to have to see what can be done.

P.S. Did you get the pictures that Pumper sent you?

Love
Mama

Dear Son,

How are you today? I sure hope Pumpkin & the baby came down on the week end. The baby is still growing. I put her on the floor & she was crawling & going every place. I bought a few things for her Friday. If I could find a nice baby sitter, I would keep her for awhile. I am still going to keep her one week or two.

I am going to Monterey, Calif. this Friday night & stay until Monday morning. When are you coming back this way? I really miss you man.
I am glad you are getting plenty of food. I ask Rev. Brown how you look, he said you lost a couple of pounds & getting some muscles. He said you were fine. Send me a picture of you. I guess I'll close for now, will write again the latter part of this week.

Love & miss you,
Mama

P.S. Hurry Home!
