M: Are you still planning on going down?

- S: Yea, Grandma said that Dad said, and Dad mentioned it also, that he wanted the trip postponed?
- M: Yea, because I was coming back and I thought they could go down with me. You can go with me too.

S: Oh, O.K. When is that going to be?

M: I can't know for sure how long, but I'm hoping it won't be for more than 3 or 4 weeks that I'll be here.

S: All right.

- M: But having been here for such a short time, I can't tell you for sure. I will give you enough notice. How much notice would you have to
- S: Well, more than likely, it will be the third or fourth week in Oct?

M: Probably.

S: That's when I can't make it because I've got a trip out of the State (or States) for a week and a half, clear through the first week in

S: Well, I'm going to be out of town all next week too. three

M: O.K. well, let's play it by ear. Last time I came here for xwx weeks and I stayed for five months, so I don't plan anything.

S: (They both laugh.) Oh, my God.

M: It doesn't mean you have to come with us or anything like that. I had to come back.

S: How come?

M: Charles Garry thought it would be good if I came back, the people see me, see that I am well, healthy, and all that kind of thing, mainly...

S: Did any of the boys come with you?

M: No.

S: 9H. (an obvious let down)

- M: I came by myself. So grandma and grandpa were planning the 4th, but Dad, and I did too, felt it would be kind of foolish for them to be there when I am here.
- S: Yea, because when I first talked to them, they said they had plans to go see you.

M: Yea.

S: Oh, O.K. I didn't know.

- M: This came up and Dad decided, not just him, it was decided..and Garry thought it was a good idea for me to come back for awhile. Well, I'll keep you posted. O.K. You'll be gone all next week?
- S: Year. Well, o.k., so when we come back can I, can we meet for some.. to talk?

Re: My analysis of Suzanne's response.

At first she was very reserved. I think she kind believed that my parents' trip had been cancelled and I had been sent here to keep her from coming. When I assured her that I was sent for other reasons as indicated on the write up of the conversation, she begand soften. There was almost a pleading in her voice when she asked if she and I could get together and talk. I f it is alright with you, I thought I would meet her but I would be driven to pick her up my security would take us to a place of my choice that she would have no advanced knowledge of. She seemed disappointed that none of the bys had come with me. I can't imagine whae would make her think I'd bring them back to this hell.

She is going to be gone for a week and then she will call me. Unless I HEAR OTHERWISE, Iwil meet her as stated.
