Danny K. Kutulas

I, Danny K. Kutulas, being duly sworn, declare:

Grace was one of my house guests in my apartment in the Fall of 1975. She was aware of my serious marital problems at the time. On the occasion that the others left the apartment Grace, who was clad in a thin gown, threw open her arms and said, "Would you like to fuck me?" I said, "You're nuts." and walked out of the apartment. I feel this typlifies her immature narcissism.

LYNETTA R. JONES, AFFIDAVIT THEREOF: 1-12 20

1. Lynetta Jones, mother of Jim Jones, often answered the phone to hear Grace tearfully asking to talk to Jim Jones. She would talk to him for hours.
2. Showed no regard for the children and teens and others in the home. She evidenced bizarre and hysterical behavior in the Jones household and poured out her problems onto Jim's sons until he put a stop to it.
3. Lynetta heard Grace threaten to kill Tim Stoen.

I, Lynetta P. Jones, being duly sworn, declare:

These are my experiences and observations:

I remember on many occasions hearing the phone ring in our home in Redwood Valley where I lived with my son James Jones, and his family. I answered the phone on several occasions myself to hear Grace Stoen tearfully asking to speak to Jim. She would talk with him for hours. I would hear him while I was working in the kitchen trying to reassure her or counsel her on various matters. She did this repeatedly and even came to the parsonage herself in this condition a couple of times. She seemed to have no regard for those around her. She cried in front of the other children in the house (at that time they were teenagers) and even attempted to discuss her problems with them until my son noticed and intervened, demanding of her not to do this. My son had apprised the entire house of the situation, and if he had not her hysteria would have necessitated it since she constantly manifested such bizarre behavior.

I remember once overhearing her threaten to kill Tim Stoen. Much of the time she seemed perturbed about him and the time he spent with her.

We often took care of little John in the house as she seemed very unable to meet his most basic needs. He visited with us on many nights and never wanted to go back home after being in the house with us.

My own opinion on the matter of little John's future is that it would be the total destruction of a human being to send him back to his mother.

JOSEPH WILSON, AFFIDAVIT OF:

A-1-E 3a

1. Grace wrestled with Joseph and pushed against his privates, attempting sexual stimulation.
2. She ran in front of Joe totally naked and taunted: "Cant you take it?"
3. Grace gave money to some of the church youth, including Joe.
4. She frequently took Joe out to dinner, but gave no time to her son John.
5. Grace left John with Joe and others for the sake of her affair with Walter Jones.

B-1-C-3a (over)

Grace's preference for Walter Jones caused John tears and anxiety.

Affidavit of
Joseph Wilson

I, Joseph Wilson, being duly sworn, declare:

I was a frequent house guest of the Stoen's and as a consequence was exposed to some bizarre behaviour on the part of Grace Stoen. She often wrestled with me and brushed against my privates in a rough manner, obviously attempting sexual stimulation. She would then say, "What's the matter, can't you take it?" On other occasions she would run in front of me totally nude and ask same question, above mentioned. She also did this in front of me in the presence of Emmett Griffith, Jr.

I began wondering how she kept her accounting in order when she handled some of the finances because she would give me gas money from church funds and not require receipts nor an accounting of any kind. This happened often and regularly. I saw her give Melanie Briedenbach money for personal clothing from the petty cash box in the church office.

She didn't spend time with her son like she should have, and I know she had plenty of spare time because she frequently took me out to dinner, several times driving all the way to San Francisco from Redwood Valley, just to eat at a restaurant. This is a six hour drive both ways alone.

On other occasions I saw her neglect her son for the sake of her affair with Walter Jones, many times she would leave John with me or other people and leave with Walter. This caused John a great deal of anxiety and tears. She even went as far as to push John aside, drop his hand, take Walters hand and leave.

Affidavit of
Carolyn M. Layton

I, Carolyn M. Layton, being duly sworn, declare:

As a member of Peoples Temple and a counselor in the organization for a long time, I have had several experiences relating to Grace Stoen which the following will describe.

On one occasion shortly after John Stoen was born Grace Stoen came up to the alter of the church to talk to Jim Jones. She was crying and he called my up to talk to her as well. She complained that she felt like committing suicide and was unhappy with Tim Stoen as her husband. She suggested marrying Jim Jones. Jim said to her very kindly that this was not possible. He then called up her husband Tim to let him know how she was feeling so he could counsel with her.

On another occasion I went to Grace's house and she was taking care of John. He was quite young. She was sitting and crying loudly about her problems while holding her son John. At the time I thought it was very inappropriate that she be demonstrating such strong depression in front of the child. She did this often.

Grace constantly complained that people slighted her and that she was not treated well by people. Considering the kind of emotional pressure she placed on everyone around her I thought such an accusation was utterly ridiculous. I found people to be extremely tolerant of her. She responded like a child to almost all adults around her, requiring constant praise and reassurance in order to function.

Grace was very flirtatious around teenage boys and I remember her kissing Vincent Lopez on the lips one time. Another time she kissed John in the mouth in front of me. Other young men complained of similar approaches made by her.

Grace Stoen is an emotional cirpple. Because of her serious emotional problems I definitely feel she should not be allowed to remove John from his present very satisfying environment. I have known Grace all the years she has been in Peoples Temple. I can say with utmost conviction that she was given every possible opportunity to grow; she was given far more hours of counseling time and attention than almost any other troubled person who came to the Temple for help. I saw her talk to Jim Jones until he looked as if he were about to pass out. One time while she was talking to him, I saw him fall to his knees and medical personnel had to come and administer oxygen to him. From my viewpoint he gave all that he could to help her and she took all she could. It would be cruel and inhumane to take John Stoen from his father and return him to his mother.

She was very flirtatious around teenage boys and I remember on one occasion she kissed Vincent Lopez on the lips which I felt entirely inappropriate considering the difficult emotional background he came from. She did the same thing to her son John. Other young men complained of similar approaches by her.

Grace Stoen is an emotional cripple. Because of her serious emotional problems I definitely feel she should not be allowed to remove John from his present very satisfying environment. I have known Grace all the years she has been in Peoples Temple. I remember the very first time she attended. In fact on one occasion I saw Jim Jones fall while talking to her and we had to call insome medical people to administer oxygen.

I fully expect that as soon as this affidavit is made known to her she will manufacture the same lies about me that she has obviously done about Jim Jones, but I write this knowing full well that with her gross immaturities she will undoubtedly retaliate in some form or another. I have heard her make threats of retaliation against people before, but I feel I must tell the real facts which I am familiar with regarding Grace regardless of the consequences.

Terry Carter

I, Terry Carter, duly sworn declare:

In the fall of 1974 I had the occasion to travel from Redwood Valley, California to San Francisco with Grace Stoen and Tim Carter. I was shocked and upset by their behavior. This gave me my first real opportunity to observe Grace being flirtatious and sexually aggressive. Even though she was married and had a one-year old son, and even though Tim Carter was my brother, Grace was not embarrassed to flirt and finger Tim's hair while she was driving; and when we stopped for lunch, she lay beside Tim and they caressed each other. When I asked her where her son was, she was flippant as though she couldn't care less about him.

Grace's sexual impulsiveness and immaturity -- I would even say obsession, came out in other ways, too. For example, once when I was standing with her, and she was holding her son, the four Jones brothers, walked by, and she followed them with her eyes. She turned to me and said, "it's hard for me to remember they're just boys, if you know what I mean." She nudged me, and acted very foolish. She always seemed more interested in flirting with different men - or boys, than she was in her own child. (On the occasion I've described here, the oldest Jones son was only 17 and the youngest was , and Grace was 21 and married and a mother.)

Affidavit #1

B-1-e-9c
Tuesday, August 16, 1977

I, Timothy J. Carter, do hereby declare the following to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and recollection.

Starting in approximately July of 1973 I became close friends with Grace Gretch Stoen, who was then legally married and living with Timothy O. Stoen. Subsequently we became "lovers", though we actually never had sexual intercourse, did frequently engage in petting, fondling, and "making out" with each other. In October, 1973, Grace Stoen did ask me to have intercourse with her: "Will you make love to me even though I'm on my period?" This took ~~was~~ place in her home, in her bedroom (at that time she and Tim Stoen were living on Eastside Calpella Dr. in Ukiah, CA. Her son, John Stoen, who she admitted to me was fathered by Jim Jones, was in the house at the time, asleep.)

I initially learned that the natural father of John Stoen was Jim Jones on September 23, 1973, when Jim Jones told me of the relationship he had had with Grace Stoen, at her husband's request.

Grace Stoen had an open, deep hatred for Tim Stoen, which she spoke openly of to me and to others. She would call him derogatory names, such as "squatty-body". She complained of him as being an incompetent lover and insensitive husband, and said she could never "get back together" with Tim. She openly said that "I hate Tim Stoen". She never considered Tim to have the right to call John his son, and would make comments such as, "he's my son, not yours." She did tell me once that she would fight to ever giving custody of John to Tim Stoen, though she did say that she would give custody of John to Jim Jones, since he was the real father. This type of dialogue was set in terms of postulation, not as something inevitable. Grace spoke of the "pain" the birth of John had put her through (emotional pain), and said if she had to ~~do~~ do it over, she wouldn't. She admitted to me that Jim Jones had used ~~birth~~ ~~control~~ ~~contraceptives~~ contraceptives to try and avoid any impregnation.

Grace was not aware that Jim and others knew of my relationship with her, and we would see each other on the sneak: either in her office early in the morning, by taking rides out in the country, or she would leave her front door open for me to sneak in. She was highly paranoid of being confronted in P.C. over our relationship.

WCF
T.C.

She was very concerned about concealing the identity of John's real father, and would mention people outside of P.C. that she was afraid knew about it. Liz Foreman was one person in particular who she thought knew & would talk about it through the church. She would talk about what would happen "if it ever got out", as if Jim's effectiveness as a leader would be severely damaged if it did.

Grace Stoen was a very vindictive person, and told me that she "never forgets" if somebody would offend her or screw her over. She made frequent references to the "blond haired, blue-eyed, pink-titted bitches" that Tim Stoen was supposedly attracted to, or who were supposedly close to Jim. I interpreted this primarily as jealousy of Marcelline Jones, Jim Jones' wife.

Grace's concern for her image over ~~her~~ her concern for her child became glaringly apparent to me when, during a P.C. confrontation, she said "I swear on my child's life that I never said that" when I exposed her asking me to make love to her.

I, Patty Cartmell, being duly sworn declare:

I have observed how one Grace Stoen pressured Rev. Jim Jones repeatedly for sex. Grace would call me on the phone and cry, and then come over to my house where I lived close to Rev. Jones' parsonage home. She would ask Jim over and over for sex.

She was aware Jim did not want her in a sexual encounter. Jim was very kind and always compassionate. Grace would still continue on this insane issue of sex. She appeared to be obsessed with wanting sex with Jim Jones. She threatened suicide on numerous occasions.

And then I heard Tim Stoen ask Rev. Jones in the parking lot to have sex with Grace, because he (Tim) was afraid she would leave him and try to hurt the Peoples Temple cause and bring public embarrassment to Jim Jones. So then Jim agreed, and in February or March, 1971, he did have sex with Grace at my house. She got more demanding after that and more threats came from her. Suicide and threats of hurting the cause. Numerous threats to kill her husband were made. Jim had sex with her again, and I helped Grace use a diaphragm. She also took my contraceptive cream, and she used two of them as Jim did everything to prevent any pregnancies. He used prophylactics, too. Grace swore she was taking birth control pills, but later laughed and said she wasn't.

I later heard Tim Stoen say he wanted Grace to have a child by Jim Jones, as he thought that might settle her down. I don't know just what he meant, but Tim seemed to want to help people, though I wasn't around him enough to know for sure.

When Grace got pregnant that began a nightmare.

I, June B. Crym, being duly sworn declare:

That for about six months I worked in the same office with Grace Stoen, during the year 1965, in Redwood Valley, California. I had worked with her husband Tim for several years in the legal services project of Peoples Temple, and I used to visit their home weekly to pick up work assignments from Tim Stoen.

Grace talked openly to me about her personal feelings and she often talked about raising her son John and the difficulty she had with this strong-willed child. She talked about how bright he was and advanced for his age, and explained on at least two separate occasions to me that "You know, his dad is Jim Jones." Then she told me never to repeat it to anyone else, although the fact was common knowledge among many church members.

In the times that I picked up work from Tim Stoen, visiting their home over about a five year period, I would often walk into the middle of an argument between Tim and Grace, mostly about the child. Tim said he resented Grace spending time with John, and Grace, forgetting John was in the room, cried back: "What do you care, you're not the father?"

Affidavit of
Eugene B. Chaikin

I, Eugene B. Chaikin, being duly sworn, declare:

I have known both Tim Stoen and Grace Gretch Stoen since early in 1972. I have spent hundreds of hours speaking with each of them, often about very intimate details of their lives. It has been the custom in Peoples Temple to have counselling sessions to discuss personal problems, but each of them, on occasion, apart and aside from such occasions and not in a setting of any lawyer-client relationship or of professional activity, has spoken to me about their lives. Each has said to me on several occasions that John Victor Stoen is the child of Grace and Jim Jones. I was told that the relationship was one that was demanded of Jim by Grace, that she had insisted on Jim as a lover and Tim as a husband because Grace was extremely concerned with social status, which Tim's profession allowed. Jim had gone along with the demand by Grace because she insisted at the point of suicide and of doing all manner of harm to his church and its members if he did not comply. Tim knew about it before it started, and had in fact prevailed upon Jim initially to relate to Grace sexually as the only way he could keep his wife. I heard, too, that Grace had threatened Tim with disclosure of something of which I am not familiar.

When Grace became pregnant, Jim was terribly upset. Many encouraged her to have an abortion, but she refused. When the child came, she either neglected it or gave it to others to care for. Often she treated the child with indifference that bordered on cruelty -- so that others were eager to assume care of the boy in order to save him from his own mother's maltreatment. She often ridiculed Tim with the fact that the child was Jim's and not his. She would treat John either with utter contempt and indifference, or be wildly emotional and smother the child with superficial attention, more sexual in nature than affectionate. I never saw John happy in Grace's care. Not until he spent time with Maria Katsaris who took good care of him and gave him consistent, positive support -- together with the kindness and genuine care Jim Jones has given him-- have I seen John happy. When I last saw him in Guyana, he was more happy and relaxed than I have seen him in all his life.

B-1-N-136

AFFIDAVIT OF

I, Sharon Amos, being duly sworn, declare:

I was a witness on countless occasions of Grace Stoen stating that Jim Jones was the true father of John Victor Stoen. On one occasion when I was visiting Grace at her home, she said that she had given John a bath and had not properly tested the bath water in John's bathinet. She had immersed his foot in the water that was too hot and had burned his foot. She said she had received a phone call from Jim and he had felt very bad that John had this experience as John might associate pain with taking a bath. She said that she often talked to Jim about incidents that happen with John because Jim was John's real father and understood John better than anyone else did.

She told me that John and Jim were very alike in their personalities, that John had the same type of energy and said she felt a tremendous responsibility that she felt she couldn't live up to in being the mother of John. She said it was overwhelming and she felt like a failure being John's mother and she wished she had never had John.

She told me that she hated Tim Stoen and didn't want him to have anything to do with raising John. She said she couldn't stand Tim and whenever she listened to him talk she felt embarrassed at him and couldn't stand to hear his voice.

B-1-77-14a

She also told me that she had realized that she wasn't the type of person to be a mother and that she just couldn't be satisfied to be home all day with a child.

AFFIDAVIT OF
SANDRA BRADSHAW

I, Sandra Bradshaw, being duly sworn, declare:

I live at 2544 Sutter St., San Francisco, California. I have been a member of Peoples Temple for nearly 8 years. I served in the County Probation Department as a Probation Officer for over 7 years.

When I lived at 615 W. Church St., in Ukiah, California, Grace Stoen lived at 400 Oak Park, a few blocks away. We used to take evening walks together with her dogs. She was a very bourgeoisie person and superficial, one who had few friends in the church due to her excessive life-style and narcissism. I befriended her as best I could.

It was when she was first pregnant, that she admitted to me that Jim Jones was the father of her child. I have heard her make this statement numerous times since that first admission.

She also talked to me in her months of pregnancy and told me she wanted to have a girl -- that she knew she would not be able to relate to a son. Grace was extremely disappointed that she had a male child. This was obvious by the way she related to him. (For instance, she refused to give him his first hair cut and let it grow long to make him look like a girl. Someone else had to see that he got a haircut, finally.) In my opinion, Grace was never a conscientious or fit mother.

AFFIDAVIT OF

I, Jean Brown, being duly sworn do declare:

That I was present in a meeting of about 8 people sometime during the fall of 1971 when Grace Stoen told the group that Jim Jones was the father of the child she was expecting. I remember the night clearly because there was so much pain involved for all parties when she made this confession. She was very emotional and poured out tremendous hostility against Tim Stoen, whom she felt did not really care for her but only used her as a "pretty wife" to show off in his ambitious political career. Their marriage had been going badly and Tim had not been relating to Grace sexually. Grace swore to those of us in the room that Jim Jones was the father of the expected child.

Teresa J. Buford

I, Teresa J. Buford, being duly sworn, declare:

Grace Stoen told me that John Stoen was not sired by Tim Stoen but rather by Jim Jones. This was first told to me with Grace and Jim together one evening in 1973 by the pool of the Redwood Valley church in the evening. Grace told me many times after that about how Jim was concerned about her during her pregnancy and how he would see that she was taking care of herself during the pregnancy and gave her milk on the bus trips to Los Angeles. Grace also told me that she was worried that Tim Stoen was jealous of John being Jim's son and that she was afraid to leave John alone in the house with Tim because she didn't know what Tim would do to the child. She told me she was sorry that she had a child and that if she had it to do over again that she would have had an abortion.

LEE INGRAM

I, Lee Ingram, being duly sworn, declare:

Grace is a self-centered ego-maniac and in the past would brag about and make known her accomplishments, even if they were other's deeds.

One such was her marriage to Tim Stoen, a one time member of Peoples Temple and a successful Assistant District Attorney in Mendocino and San Francisco Counties. This was Grace's penchant to live vicariously through other's deeds and make claim for how great she was--purely through some dependent attachment.

Grace's son, John, was fathered by Jim Jones after much verbal counselling was attempted, a design specifically to help the fragile and intemperant Grace maintain a little sanity.. John was another "object" for her to flaunt. On more than one occasion in the course of conversation she'd of the night. I can remember one time specifically when, after making out for awhile, and fondling each other, she took all her clothes off, on her own accord. I didn't feel that having intercourse with her was proper at that time, so I did not remove my clothing. When she saw after a couple of minutes that I was not taking my clothes off, she became almost frantic, stopped making out, and put her clothes back on. During this encounter I had fondled and kissed her breasts, and also had touched her vagina.

The night Grace asked me to "make love" to her she again took her clothes off, and I was in my underwear. Our sex play included her masturbating me to orgasm, and my having oral sex with her. It was while I was having oral sex with her she asked me "Will you make love to me even though I'm on my period?"

There were many other times we would engage in simple hugging and kissing, in the car, in the office, and other places. During this whole affair Grace Stoen was legally married to Tim Stoen. John Stoen, her son, would be in the house when I would sneak in at night. One of the other girls, who lived with her at that time, Melanie Breidenbach, knew that we had a relationship of sorts, though she didn't know

August 17, 1977

I, Timothy J. Carter, do declare the following to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge & recollection.

I want to detail more specifically my physical relationship with Grace Stoen, and some of the specific meetings we had. The first time we ever had physical contact or kissed was in late September of 1973. It was a Saturday night and Grace was supposed to be in a Planning Commission meeting - it was around 7:30 or 8:00. I was not on the Planning Commission at that time. We met in the alley behind the Los Angeles Temple & then walked through the alley, across Picc Blvd, and further down the alley and stopped and sat on a ledge. We talked awhile, holding hands, and kissed, and "French-kissed" each other. She was late for the P.C. meeting.

The first time we ever petted, that I can specifically remember, was one afternoon after going to a luncheon as church representatives, we stopped at her house (on Eastside Calpella Rd, where she lived with Tim Stoen) and made out on her couch. At that time I did fondle her breasts and vagina through her blouse and panty hose. We stopped after about a half-hour.

We had more involved sexual encounters when I would come into her bedroom in the middle the extent of it, and used to tease Grace about it.

When the kids were awake at home and we wanted to be together we would take a drive far out on a country road, where we would talk & make out.

Grace was on an ego trip about John being Jim's son, and made statements to me to that effect, such as she "just happened to be the mother of the leaders son." She also told me that if she ever left the church, she would leave John with the church, because she knew that would "be best for him."

Grace Stoen did admit that she even hated John Stoen during a confrontation we were having on Bus # 7. The dialogue was between myself, Grace Stoen, Jim Jones, Sharon Amos, Scurty Bradshaw, Patricia Cartmell, Andy Silver, and I think two others, who I cannot specifically remember at this time. When she was asked "Isn't it true that you really hate John?", Grace Stoen replied "Yes."
