

from SB: re: P.L. trip

My grandmother wants me to come home so she can see me "one more time" (she is 81 & sick)

She will pay my way - (that would be to Syracuse, NY & back) - I have always told them I could never get many days off -

I told them that if I could schedule attending a conference near-by - I could stop for a couple of days maybe.

Anyway - if I stopped there for a day or so - they would pay that much of the plane fare - & I could tell them I had to go to NY. to a conference & then go to P.L.

But it would cut down on the time I'm there if I did -

I also gave Rose some more of those sunglasses but I'm afraid there are not many more to be found -
Also - package of the usual - (given to Rose in white plastic bag)

RE: Paranoia - etc.

① I didn't respond quickly to that issue because I wanted to think about it more before I answered. I have thought about it- and come up with nothing substantial.

Seems like I do remember being paranoid once about something concerning you- but I can't for the life of me remember what it was. It was not involved with you directly, but it was something about someone else or some situation that I felt I had to ask you to clear up... but I don't remember.

Sometimes L.A. makes me paranoid that she had mentioned something to someone else about me- or that she won't tell me to my face but nothing real significant that can't be worked out- and it doesn't even happen very often.

But as far as any paranoia concerning you and/or what you may be thinking... I really can't think of any now. If I do- I will bring it up. I trust you completely- or as near complete as anyone of us limited beings can trust. I don't think you would ever intentionally hurt anyone. I feel you care and have empathy for everyone- even people you may not personally like etc.

I have faith in you... faith- I call it 'blind faith' that has at times brought me thru things I have had to do- on the sheer thought that if you said it could be done- it can be done. I know I don't fathom your depth and breadth at all... but I do acknowledge it- and have a deep respect for your abilities. I think that you are a purely good person, and anything that may appear otherwise to people- is because of ^{their} ego involvement and their own lack of over-all view of what is the greatest good for the greatest number.

② The reason I feel life ^(hopefully) may be short when one gets nothing out of it- is because all of the bodies energy goes into straight maintenance and coping. If there is no moment- no matter how brief- for some kind of 'distraction'- I feel the wear and strain on the physical body will be too much- no matter what the brain says its going to do.

③ Also- the main things that I feel I would like to tell you about- (just for reference) are the condition of my physical or mental being. That's about it.

thank you BB-6-TT

I need to be more organized in certain areas - I think one reason is that it is so ingrown & difficult to keep up to date of -
Also - it is boring & tho I try to vary what I do where etc. - it is still tedious.

And when I get involved with other things - I am always in conflict because I know I have more than enough to do in my dept.

for SB

I stopped by Ch's this week for dinner - and when I left - she knew I had a lot to do -

And she said - "I hope you get everything accomplished tonight that you would like to get done."

I feel this is a perfect example of a Socialist statement - and it touched me deeply - I just wanted to share it with you -

SB

Father

(personal)

I wish I could tell you how very good it was to see you- to be with you. Obviously, you can tell the difference in me- even tho you say you bring me nothing but pain. How can I convince you that is not true?

I feel like a huge weight has been lifted off me. I am up to my old plateau of depression- instead of the deep valley I was in. I am glad to be back at that functioning level. It had built up for a while- tho I am not sure what started it- probably only things added up. I know that when PJ left- I remember a real hurt then- that just compiled I guess. And when she came back- I knew it was not out of choice- but rather necessity.

Anyway, I feel so very much better- you must see that- and to know that you did it. You can see by what I mentioned of my "programing" from parents etc.- that the only 'love' and understanding that I have known has come from you. My life was always unhappy as I remember- never recall any pleasure- nothing- until you claimed me. How can I let you take any guilt for any of my pain- you caused me none?

This life is pain- whether it is here or there or wherever- but there is no comfort or warmth except where you are. I know how you are about guilt and all- but if I can convince you of just one thing- it would be- that I would not give up one moment that I have had with you- not one lesson that has been sent my way... not one second of fulfillment that you have given me. Quality... is what your love is. And how grateful I am for the time we have together. It has filled this lifetime... many lifetimes- over and over.

And about the operation- I know that I can't convince you of any-thing there- but I thought about it long and hard... and you had nothing to do with it- whether or not you consented. Obviously, there was that area- that I would have disobeyed- no matter what you had answered- I knew what I was doing. I had seen too much over the past years- where you and little ones are concerned... I would not change my mind- whatever agreement you put up. Obligations or whatever- my feelings are too strong in that area... I will raise other children- fulfill my socialist obligation there- others are more intelligent- younger, stronger etc.- I will help raise there children with whatever ability I have. But I will not raise my own- not knowing what I do about you- can you see that I would have made that choice no matter...?

I am sorry I kept it from you- I would have never told you tho... there are not many areas at all that I would lie to you in- but that was one. But I could see no way out of where you were heading in your questioning. If my desire in that situation counts- then you will not feel badly about what I did. There is nothing you can say- and I mean nothing- that could convince me that what I did was wrong. There could never be the situation exist on this earth- that I would want to put you thru that- selfishly- I would not do it- for my own peace of mind. The only reason it would be hard to do- is that it was the last vestige of romantic idealism- and my instinct tells me that I followed the best path... it was no sacrifice on my part believe me...

I did not want to alarm you about the drinking- it has not been that big a deal- all I got was 2 small bottles of wine to taste for you- and they were not right- so I was 'stuck' with it- I still have $\frac{1}{2}$ left so- that is only 1 bottle in about a week and $\frac{1}{2}$. I meant a small glass - not a very big glass at night. And when you were gone- when I came back from L.A. after trying to raise that amt.- and hours with Penny etc.- I did have a a cocktail on the plane- (I was pooped)- but that was my first mistake- I remembered how 'good' temporarily it makes you feel. Anyway, it hasn't been a big deal... but I know that I have a real, real propensity for it again- and I will not get involved with it to any great extent. I will tell you just what I am doing in that area. I promise you... the weakness I have for it frightens me- I won't play around there.

I know that you have known that I've had problems for a while- since I haven't written you- and I know that has been conspicuous by its absence. I haven't even tried... after a while- it all sounds like such repetition. And I have not had much time since I have gotten back- but the fact is still that I did not want to reveal too much of myself- so I didn't write you.

I know you know all about me- but I want ~~in~~ you to know because I have told you- not because I have tried to keep what I am from you. I do at least feel that much better about myself- I am not afraid of being unaccepted by you- whatever I do or say.

I should have talked about this when I was with you- I do not like you being with other people... I really wouldn't mind- if it was people I liked- or even people I knew that you liked- but I really, really hate for you to have to be with traitors and ass-y men. That's what I meant when I said I took what was said to mean me also... I do not like for you to have to be where you don't want to be- doing what you do... when it should be obvious to people that it is a service... I don't understand- I guess I never will... if I knew I were being serviced- for whatever reason- I would not allow it. Not meaning to be judgemental of others- I just don't understand it... after all that has been said.

And I resent what it is doing to you... you should be spending your health and energy on the revolution- not in such business. The tremendous drain that I see it is on you- trying to be- and do all- for everyone- it looks to me as if it is impossible to do- and I resent people always asking for their piece.. Oh, I know they don't all ask- and some are hard-working etc. and those- I don't mind- it is the others that really bother me. And after the type of meeting that Sat. was in L.A.- I felt it was an "open invitation"- If you want to be screwed- just let me know.... I hope you are not overwhelmed by people- I hated to see it include L.A. also... I really do- since I don't trust any of them there anyway.

I am in no position to "resent" anything- I know that... it's just that I don't understand some things... I can't relate to it after all this time- and I worry that it is going to kill you in the midst of war... All I can hope- is that when people get 'scared'- they will forget that they have an "urge" of some kind- (whatever it is...?) I would not want to begrudge anyone of the same acceptance from you that I have felt- it is just hard- when I think of you- that's all.

I don't like to go on too long because I know you have to read so much... I just wanted to let you know again- that I feel so much better- and that I don't want you to worry and all. I am back on keel again- and trying to give more indications of where I am at. I don't want to be secretive or apart from you. I don't want to have to drag that awful "image" around anymore. I want to be what I am- and become what I can be...

You mean so very, very much to me... I wish I could convey that- what you give to me... thank you for such love and understanding- and peace in the depth of my being.

faithfully, teko

From SB: re: JOB SITUATION

I am worried about leaving my job position open while our people are still in the community. I feel that while I personally am insignificant- the job is not... on the contrary... it is probably one of the most powerful in the area.

For the following reasons:

- ✓ ① I have DIRECT line of communication with both judges of the Superior Court and to a limited degree with the Justice Court. (I am supposedly the "arm" of the court... ~~in~~ the investigator on their behalf) ... I have a reputation for being "conservative, law & order, strict on the side of the law etc." - and usually the Judges go by my recommendations (as I ask their advice on matters etc.)
- ✓ ② I have DIRECT communication with the law enforcement agencies- Ukiah Police and the Sheriff... ^{Highway Patrol} this enables me to get considerable information... as well as to accrue 'favors' in the line of duty...
- ③ I have direct contact with the D.A.'s office, as well as with all attorneys in the area.
- ✓ ④ I have contact with the Welfare Dept.- in the various depts. there.
- ✓ ⑤ There is direct contact with all local school administrators and teachers.
- ⑥ I can, thru my job capacity- have considerable access to assorted information throughout the state... as well as other states to a lesser degree.
- ⑦ the Public at large is usually somewhat 'put-off' by Probation Officers- thus enabling me to gather extra information at times and to 'bull doze' thru when I might not be able to if it were a job unrelated to law enforcement etc.

I am not at all opposed to working in the area of co-ordinating the P.L.- I am willing to work in whatever area is best... however, I am hesitant to leave such a "key" position in a small town undefended. (there is absolutely no possibility of any of our people replacing me- since there is already someone in line for any opening.)

I submit this for consideration - that I remain in the job- for the above mentioned reasons- until most of our ranks have pulled out- and things are reasonably quiet- and then go right into co-ordinating Guyana- if that will not be too late. Whatever is decided will be fine with me...

2- also- I am very sorry about PJ- I can only slightly indentify with your pain and disappointment.

I am sorry I haven't written my thoughts in quite a while- I want to think some more about this thing called "treason"- and will get my feelings and suggestions etc. to you in the near future.

3- what is the possibility of my misssing the Weds. night meeting? I hate to ask- and if it would look bad- I won't- but it is hard to stay on top of things with the GCC meetings picking up- and so many PC's and regulare meetings- I am having trouble doing it. (you can answer this question by # 3 - yes or no...)

- RECONSIDERED- strike that request- I realize how important it is for people to "see" us.. esp. with PJ gone etc.- they might think we are not around too- I will make arrangements- no problem...

4- I am fine- will try to get a report to you re: PL. as soon as I can get some conclusive thoughts together.. am still wondering tho about my job- you said to ask you once, a week about anticipated quitting (or if at all...)

Makes no difference to me- except I should get some kind of "story" together for them in preparation for whatever...

BB-6-49992

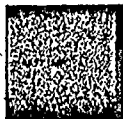

I know- and truly believe that she did not want this to happen- for anything in the world. I think I know her fairly well. And besides your deep pain in the matter- I feel so badly for her trauma. I hope she can get some feeling of peace and relief from guilt as the child grows.

I know she does not want to live- and having to raise a special child- future leader- is a terrible responsibility. I do not by choice want that responsibility... (my decision for not wanting a child is obviously not purely altruistic)... but I promise to do all in my strength to help her with this child- as if I were involved in the heart of the matter... which I feel I am- for he is a child of Socialism- meant for the world. There is no private ownership in our mission here.

I don't remember why I ever said that I would have more trouble (in G's situation) if it had been another woman that it had happened to. That was so long ago- I don't know what I was thinking of. But I care for that little one.. and have disliked the mother so.. that of course I could care for this one - even more so- for I care very much about the mother.

I didn't mean that I didn't want to see him this trip- I only meant that I feel her need now- I guess that is what you meant when you said you wished they could stay babies- for they are somewhat less intertwined in our consciousness.. (only slightly so tho I suppose- and that changes rapidly)

BB-6-KKKK

After that meeting- I just wanted to tell you a few things. I really hate those nights. I want to be there to see you- but the pleasure of that is nullified by the pain I see you go thru. I know you don't care if I am hostile. And- I don't know- if my hostility necessarily has to be to you by my not wanting to live- I just thought that one would be appropriate.

I don't think of you much as a father.. mainly as a leader, an example of what I should be. When I don't live up to that- I am hostile at myself. And I get hostile at others when I see the imperfect parts of myself in them.

I see you also as many roles.. the authoritarian being just one. And I do not equate you absolutely with the roles you must play. But I must admit- when you say that we all take advantage of you- and manipulate you etc.- I apply it to myself- and feel awful about any of it I might do.

I wish I were more loving and had more patience- I might be more of a help to you. You sure got the raw end of the deal with me as far as I am concerned. I would like to be more of a support than I am. I don't want you to worry about me- what good does the worry do? The crucial decisions were thought thru long ago- its just getting thru this hell in the mean time.

I am sorry you have to be here.. I don't understand why such goodness must suffer continually for such ass-holes. I hope the rest of the universe is better organized than what I see of it here..

Anyway- I just wanted to tell you that I care very, very much for you. And need you in so many ways. But my life is full.. and I want for nothing. Thoughts of you support and sustain me- but I am nourished by the principles- (personified is an extra bonus to be near...)

We are joined in unity to a sacred principle.. spiritually one. The physical distance between us cannot deter that union. I remain totally committed to you- not because I have to be- but because I chose to.
faithfully...

I missed talking with you when you came here the last time. - It was good to see you tho - and to know that you were alright.

I can't tell you how much your friendship has meant to me over the years - you always seemed to understand - even without words being said.

I asked if I could write you - I had been thinking about your situation and thoughts - I had told him about the feelings I had - and I was then told about the child.

I am happy for you - I've seen you with John - and know how you are with children. you are sensitive and aware - and I cannot think of anyone I would feel better about bearing a child. If it could never be - I would feel honored to be with you together with you. I feel a definite bond there - and know there would be much love.

It will be good for John too - in the future - to know that he is not the only one in such a situation - I think it can be very helpful there to him.

I am sorry for the pain that you have been through - I know how much you did not want - no plan on having a child. But you know I can raise another leader in the Holy Order - and that is where our strength lies.

I've always thought you should be schooling and molding our young - you have an extra sense there.

Rose has some more 'medicine' for you- sorry it took so long- as there was none to even order- because of the holidays. I will bring the second that I got next week (I assume things as scheduled unless I hear otherwise).

Is there anything else you need that I can pick up?

Also- if LA happens to ask about my finances (as she has hinted about who was going to pay for the advanced trip of KL and PJ)- I will have to tell her something like I am getting supplies or something (?)- and I turn in my accounting to you. (as I can't really account for some things to anybody else).

(she knows I have worked with TB on getting some things in order re" bibles- so she may assume it is that- as I used to do that quite a bit).

It may not be a problem- but she knows I do not give my money to Maria- as she does..

(I will always have your medicine ordered ahead from now on- now that we know that works... so I plan on always having one in my trunk- so let me know if I am off schedule giving it to you.. I Rose sometimes thinks that if you don't ask her directly for it- that you don't need it- so I never know if she gives it to you pronto or not)

I told her that we didn't think so- that we had been friendly- and we didn't think she would be cooperating with this kind of element- but that we just wanted to ask her about it- and let her know.
The conversation was brief- she knew who I was tho I didn't say- and when I ended- I was not pressing her or anything- I just said well OK, and we both said good-bye and that was it.
But I thought that we didn't necessarily want to have her get hostile with us- but we did want her

Smith came in when I was talking with you the 2nd time & after hanging up he told me about the "turner" & told me living w/ a black woman & he made some awful remarks to both Paddy & me about this putting in some grease or paint & telling what that would do for me he had told Bonnie last night that he knew I didn't like him & wanted me to tell him off - which I would do & I've always been nice to him - and it sure has been an effort but I'm afraid of him & what he is capable of doing and it hurts me so much to have people say those things about Mickey also Stedd - who once asked Bonnie if her husband was white & was she keeping the race pure - said to Smith that we both - Mick & I - came up here from S.A. at about the same time & he suspected - now he must have gotten that from Kolesar as he (Kolesar) knows M. & I know each other pretty well from our jobs in the city - & Kolesar has stated in several

* Mickey ^{is} down about his work - very tonight times for a connection - (he saw us together once)

I wonder if Mickey should just forget about juvenile hall

But I hope they will let me work there even if they find out - because I think my work record with the help of wonderful Bonnie - is good enough to keep me there - we are working on making me indispensable to Kolesar - Bonnie nearly is Shedd also said when he knew somebody was picking with a nigger it turned him off and he for can be a considerable foe

I'm not worried tho' - we'll just keep on keeping on -

Michelle has said since she's been here she's felt healthier - she also said she had a feeling you were meditating on her tonight & then you called her out - she seemed quite pleased relating this to me - That's all for now - thanks

I will never leave this cause - no matter what ever happens.

I am so very glad that I met you and this principle - and that you have given me the knowledge that I now have - and see that I need more of

I do see growth in the group in general - and I see some hope in that - and I definitely saw the hope in the P.H. of how positively people can change & work together.

I will say again - as I did when I first came - I would stay here & work - even if things did not succeed. -

JJ:

I would like some type of 'thinking'/ analyzing assignment to do. I feel like I am not contributing my mental energy anywhere- not that I have an exceptional degree of it to use- but I need some kind of guidelines to do creative thinking in.

I kind of feel at times- so far removed from the specifics of what is going on- that I don't even know if I have enough 'input' to even attempt to analyze anything in general.

Anyway, if there is something I can do along this line, I would appreciate having some area to 'think' in- (time not to be taken from my regular work tho).

thanks-

(I gave Rose some ^{sb} better quality medicine - you may be able to use that.)
