

Mike,

If you think that you are working only to destroy our friend, you're badly underestimating the course you are on. This is going down on the record as a deliberate attempt to starve out hundreds of good people. You'll be remembered for much more than just a personal vendetta.

Even though what you're trying to do is impossible, you're going to earn for yourselves the bitterest of enemies. We have solid evidence that one of your crowd participated in Chris' death. A whole lot of people not even associated with us can back that up. Whether or not you decide to respond to this hardly matters now. Since you are no doubt fully aware of who you're in with and what you are working for, I count this communication probably a waste of my time. We have real class enemies to deal with, and really aren't worrying about your clumsy efforts. But in the future, don't try to say you didn't know. It won't wash. If you had cared anything about what was right, you would have checked with the officials that live there and have seen the work, and asked them about the kind of society we're building there. But like I said; in the future, don't plead ignorance.

Dear Tom and Terri,

I no longer reside at 851 Ashbury Street.
Hence, you should direct any future correspondence to my above listed mailing address.

Also, you may wish to note that the term "clumsy" is spelled without an "e".

Regards,

Mike Cartmell
