Gene - in the last week of July, '77, or the first wk. of Aug. the Guyana Chronicle carried a short article about a bomb scare on a Pan Am. flight from N.Y. to Guyana on July 17 or 18. The plane was held up or called back for a bomb search. The article did not say if one was or was not found. We had no one on that flight (I think - it happened the night I left S.F.) but it was the same flight that we frequently flew on. So whether the threat was real or a stunt, it could well have been planned to
