

PEOPLES TEMPLE

OF THE
DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

Jim Jones,
Pastor

April 15, 1978
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

*"For I was an hungered
and ye gave me meat:
I was thirsty
and ye gave me drink;
I was a stranger
and ye took me in;
Naked, and ye clothed me;
I was sick, and ye visited me;
I was in prison,
and ye came unto me.*

*"Then shall the righteous
Answer him, saying,
When saw we thee an hungered
And fed thee?
Or thirsty,
And gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger
And took thee in?
Or naked, and clothed thee?
Or when saw we thee sick?
Or in prison,
And came unto thee?"*

*"Verily I say unto you,
Inasmuch as ye have done it
Unto one of the least of these...
Ye have done it unto me."*
Matthew 25:35-40

"PEOPLES TEMPLE SHOW A SUCCESS"

The following is a reprint from a recent article in the Guyana Chronicle, the leading newspaper of Guyana, South America, where Rev. Jim Jones and some 1500 members of the Peoples Temple presently reside:

The Peoples Temple Agricultural Project presented its cultural variety show entitled "A Cooperative Feeling" last week at the National Cultural Center with a style never before seen in Guyana, which literally prompted the audience to shout for "More!" following some of the performances. The theme of Cooperation was carried throughout the program, which consisted of over 20 different presentations including Guyana's own Atlantic Symphony Orchestra and the Yoruba Singers. Although the program ran past midnight, few people could be seen leaving.

"The Peoples Temple show kept us on the edge of our seats with unique and exciting performances that always had us wondering what might be next", said two members of the Pegasus Soundwaves, a local band. The audience was roused by several outstanding singers and dance groups. One singer, Dianne Wilkinson, moved many to tears with a song she had adapted called, "Guyana is so Beautiful". A talented twelve-year-old boy who seems to have a bright future delivered a powerful song he wrote entitled,
